

Heart Gallery Alabama
Junior Board

Thank you for your interest in joining the Heart Gallery Alabama Junior Board!

Heart Gallery Alabama finds forever families for children in Alabama's foster care system by raising awareness and educating the public.

Heart Gallery Alabama is proud to have a dynamic group of young professionals who work hard to support its mission through their service on the Junior Board. Being a member of HGA's Junior Board gives young professionals between the ages of 25 - 39 the opportunity to build leadership and organizational skills, develop lasting friendships, and have a lot of fun while supporting a cause that benefits not only the Birmingham area, but the entire state of Alabama. Belonging to HGA's Junior Board provides a solid foundation in non-profit service and community stewardship.

To be considered for membership, applicants are expected to complete the attached application, which will be reviewed to assess an applicant's qualifications for membership. All applications are considered confidential and will only be reviewed by the members of the Heart Gallery Alabama Junior Board. All applicants must also submit a resume to be considered.
